What a Comeback Story!

In recent years we have seen devastating events around the world: floods, hurricanes, snowstorms, random school shootings, terrorist attacks. When we read or hear of the latest disaster, the one that happened yesterday is forgotten with the news of the one that happens today. And the one that happens today will be driven from our minds by what happens tomorrow. Even if the disaster is of record-breaking, biblical proportions, within a short time it is no longer front-page news and becomes just a statistic.

We soon forget that those who lived through whatever the disaster was are still struggling to cope. To take the next breath. To survive financially and physically and emotionally and in every other way. It can be overwhelming to rebuild. From scratch. From nothing into something. The comeback trail can be long and hard and flooded with tears.

Jesus showed us that, while "Weeping may endure for the night, joy comes in the morning (Psalm 30:5)!" After the horror of the cross on Friday, after the agony of knowing that God's Son was dead on Saturday, the beginning of His Comeback Story exploded into human history with an empty tomb that had been guarded by soldiers from the most powerful army in the world at that time, after they had brutally executed Him and verified that He was indeed DEAD!

EASTER PULSATES WITH HOPE!!!

Jesus' resurrection was literal and physical and changed all of history forever! It means that our own tombs will be empty someday! He is alive forever! In my life and in yours and in the lives of all believers there is overabundant proof that Jesus is not dead but alive! The living Lord Jesus imparts power to you and me for our own comebacks (see Romans 8:11). The stories of the early disciples of Jesus after Pentecost clearly demonstrate that we can rebuild our lives, be reborn.

BECAUSE JESUS LIVES, WE CAN LIVE TOO--NOT JUST ONE DAY IN HEAVEN, BUT RIGHT HERE AND NOW AS WE STRUGGLE WITH illness, death, fear, hurts, addictions, financial issues, depression, betrayal or whatever has seemed to bury us.

We, too, can explode into abundant life and joy and hope and power through fully trusting in Him. As we work out the day-to-day process of coming back, we can experience His peace and power and presence and purpose. And, one day, our COMEBACK TRAIL will end at His throne in our Heavenly Home, and we will reign with Him in glory!

HAPPY EASTER SEASON! HE'S ALIVE AND WE ARE TOO!

Jesus loves you and I do too!

(Questions asked of second graders: excerpted from The Joyful Noiseletter)

“How did God make Mothers?”

- “Magic, plus super powers and a lot of stirring.”
- “He used dirt, just like for the rest of us.”
- “God made my Mom just the same like he made me. He just used bigger parts.”

“If you could change one thing about your Mom, what would it be?”

- “She has this weird thing about me keeping my room clean. I’d get rid of that.”
- “I’d make my Mom smarter. Then, she’d know it was my sister who did it, not me.”
- “I would like for her to get rid of those invisible eyes on the back of her head.”

“What ingredients are Mothers made of?”

- “God makes mothers out of clouds and Angel hair and everything nice in the world and one dab of mean.”
- “They had to get their start from men’s bones. Then they mostly use string, I think.”

Sunrise in the Ozarks

Those who sleep past a sunrise miss one of nature’s most beautiful sights. It comes at a calm and peaceful part of the day, before the noise of street traffic, carpenter’s saws, jackhammers and the blare of boom boxes.

“Sometimes only a rooster’s crow breaks the silence. A sunrise is more than the beginning of a new day, more than the end of another night of darkness. It is another throb in the pulse of time.

“If you see 10 troubles coming down the road, you can be sure that nine will run into the ditch before they reach you.” —Calvin Coolidge

“The gradual change of sunrise from early in summer to later in March is part of the seasonal rhythm. There is the rhythm, we are told, of starlight, of the ocean tides, of the human pulse. And there is the rhythm of the days, of the rising of the sun. “Dawn, sunrise, then daylight, bring a new day unblemished, unlined. It all starts when a breath-taking sunrise lights up the eastern sky.”

—Jim Reed

May and June Activities

“Spring into Spring” Potluck

Sunday, May 18th, 2014,
after the Worship service.

Bring your favorite Spring potluck main dish, salad or desert.
Table service and drinks will be provided.

So “Spring” on over, and have a “slinky” good time!
.....hope to see you there.

Contact Debi or Sandy if you have any questions.

Maslow Project

During Worship service on May 18th, a speaker from the Maslow Project will be giving a ten minute talk about what they do in our community. There will be a table set up in the Fireside Room during the potluck and they will have information about their project available and also will be present to answer any questions.

Zion will also be holding a school supply (and other needed items as well) drive beginning in May and ending the first Sunday in August for the “Maslow Kids.” A list of items needed will be available and distributed, and there will be a special collection box for these items in the Sanctuary.

The Maslow Project is a highly successful system of service delivery and outreach for students and their families who are experiencing homelessness. The Maslow Project works hard to address the stigma associated with being homeless. Across Oregon, the number of students who are homeless has increased by 14% since the 2008-2009 school year, according to the state’s Department of Education. Over 18,000 students are homeless in Oregon. Medford, the largest city in So. Oregon, has the second highest ratio of homeless to housed students in the state.

The Maslow Project receives a blend of federal, state, and local funding. In the first year they served sixty children and youth. By the third year they served over two thousand, ages 0 to 22. But this funding isn’t enough to help with all their needs.

The Maslow Project is housed in a community center—a critical component of its success. The center does not carry the stigma of being a place only for kids who are homeless. “Kids just want to be normal and don’t want to be identified as homeless. If kids feel comfortable, they will access services,” says Mary Ferrell, Executive Director and Founder of The Maslow Project.

Please take this opportunity to learn more about The Maslow Project And how you can help them help our homeless children.

Thrivent Sunday Lunch

Sunday, June 8th

This is not a potluck—you don’t need to bring any thing but your appetite!! The gathering is not just for Thrivent members; the entire congregation is encouraged to attend, eat, and learn more about Thrivent.

As part of a year of Lutheran congregation lunch get-togethers, our local Thrivent Chapter Board is funding lunch for our congregatin in the Fireside Room after church and will present a short informational program. Our congregation representatives will arrange for the food and the Rogue River Area Chapter will donate $100.00 to our Youth Group for setting up and serving the lunch.

As many of you know, Thrivent, a member-owned insurance and investment group, is the largest fraternal benefit society in the USA. The group was formed over a century ago (Aid Assoc. for Lutherans and Lutheran Brotherhood).

Beware of Limiting God

“In your prayers, above everything else, beware of limiting God, not only through unbelief but also by thinking you know exactly what He can do. Learn to expect the unexpected, beyond all that you ask or think.

“So each time you intercede through prayer, first be quiet and worship God in His glory. Think of what He can do, how He delights in Christ His son, and of your place in Him – then expect great things.”

Jokes pastors can tell

An elderly couple was shipwrecked on an island, and the husband, concerned about unpaid bills, asked his wife:

"Dear, did you pay our VISA card bill before we left?"

"I'm sorry. I forgot," she replied.

"And the MasterCard bill?"

"I forgot that, too," she said.

"Did you send the installment check to the IRS this month?"

"Sorry, dear," she said, "I didn't send that one, either."

"And how about the monthly check for our church tithe?" he asked.

"Forgive me, honey," she said, "I forgot that, too."

"Don't worry, dear," the husband said, giving her a big hug. "If VISA, MasterCard, and the IRS can't find us, our pastor will."

A MONK'S PRAYER

In the 12th century, a Carthusian monk felt exhausted and depressed. As he rested, he composed the following prayer:

My soul is so dry that by itself it cannot pray;

Yet You can squeeze from it the juice of a thousand prayers.

My soul is so parched that by itself it cannot love;

Yet You can draw from it boundless love for You and for my neighbor.

My soul is so cold that by itself it has no joy;

Yet you can light the fire of heavenly joy within me;

My soul is so feeble that by itself it has no faith;

Yet by Your power my faith grows to a great height.

Thank You for prayer, for love, for joy, for faith;

Let me always be prayerful, loving, joyful, faithful.

Spiritual Reflections

The following writing is an excerpt from a booklet entitled 40 Days with Jesus by Sarah Young. Presented in the 'voice' of Jesus, she offers this as a tool to help deepen your relationship with God.

SEEK MY FACE, and you will find all that you have longed for. The deepest yearnings of your heart are for intimacy with Me. I know, because I designed you to desire Me. Do not feel guilty about taking time to be still in My Presence. You are simply responding to the tugs of divinity within you. I made you in My image, and I hid heaven in your heart. Your yearning for Me is a form of homesickness: longing for your true home in heaven.

Do not be afraid to be different from other people. The path I have called you to travel is exquisitely right for you. The more closely you follow My leading, the more fully I can develop your gifts. To follow Me wholeheartedly, you must relinquish your desire to please other people. However, your closeness to Me will bless others by enabling you to shine brightly in this dark world.

As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for You, O God.
My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When can I go and meet with God?
Psalms 42:1-2

Those who look to Him are radiant;
Their faces are never covered with shame.
Psalms 34:5

A Prayer for Our Nation

*God bless America
And keep us safe and free.
Safe from all our enemies,
Wherever they may be.*

*Teach us to walk humbly
And closer in Thy ways.
Give us faith and courage
And put purpose in our days.*

*Make each one of us aware
That each must do his part,
For in the individual
Is where peace must have its start.*

*For a better world to live in,
Where all are safe and free,
Must start with faith and hope and love
Deep in the heart of me.*

Pray for peace in your heart that will touch the hearts of others and inspire all with faith and courage.

The joy of an 'everyday cheapskate'

Living below your means in this high-pressure, credit-based, gotta-have-it-all-right-now society is not exactly easy. It takes skill and determination to go against the tide and buck a system that encourages spending all we have now, plus what we hope we'll get in the future.

"Here's the secret for living below your means in just eight little words: Buy what you need; want what you have. That is the way to choose contentment – to choose joy regardless of your situation right this moment.

"Choosing to be grateful for what you have is the way to build a layer of insulation around your life that will protect you from focusing on what you don't have.

"Insulate yourself from mindless shopping. Put distance between you and temptation. Living below your means is an honorable way to conduct your life."

—Mary Hunt

To all Members and Friends of Zion:

The decision was made in June 2010 by the church council to keep all of you informed regarding Zion's financial situation. Total revenues for January, 2014 were $4588.00 and our expenses were $7579.92. This left a shortfall for January 2014 in the amount of $2991.92. All bills are paid current. Money to cover our shortfall is now coming from the endowment fund. We all need to pray about our financial situation and pray that our monthly revenues increase. We all must have faith that our church will survive and remain open far into the future. We are a vital part of our community here in West Medford. God has placed us here for a reason!!!

Thank you all very much,
Your Church Council

A reminder that Pastor's sermons are recorded on CD weekly and will be sent to any who request a copy, just for the asking.

We regret that the sermons on CD are not yet available since the fire last July disrupted our recordings, and we truly apologize to those who are missing them. We expect to be sending them out again sometime during the month of May.

Prayer requests: If you would like to be included in our speedy email alerts regarding prayer needs, please let Penny know at:

Mention that you'd like to be included on the list. That's all you need to do.
